

Changing Words

- Choose a small word and try changing it into another word by changing just one letter at a time.
- Take turns so that you are always working with someone else's word.
- Keep the words small until the child becomes confident, for example:

pin - pit - put - pun.